

Sewanee Young Writers' Conference Code of Responsibility

- 1. Participants are not to leave campus under any circumstances without the permission of the Director, Elizabeth Grammer.
- 2. Any participant who brings a car to campus must turn the keys over to the Directors for the extent of his/ her stay. Under no circumstances is a participant to drive himself/ herself or other participants off campus; nor is a participant allowed to ride in a car with anyone not on the staff of the Young Writers' Conference.
- 3. The main academic campus of the University is surrounded by what amounts to a wilderness park, criss-crossed by trails and dotted with lakes, streams, and scenic overlooks. Participants are welcome to explore this part of the campus, but are encouraged to do so in groups of two or more, and are required to inform their dorm counselors of their plans before setting out.
- 4. Class attendance is mandatory and participants are required to complete their homework assignments.
- 5. Alcohol consumption, smoking, and drug use (excepting medications listed on the Student Health Form) are forbidden at all times during the Conference.
- 6. No candles or incense may be used in University buildings.
- 7. No visitors, except parents, are permitted in the dormitories.
- 8. Men are not under any circumstances permitted on the women's hall and vice versa.
- 9. All participants must be in the dormitory by 10: 45 p.m. On the last night of the conference, students are required to stay in the dorm courtyard after 8:30 p.m. for our closing celebration.
- 10. All participants must be in their rooms with the lights out at 11: 15 p.m.
- 11. Any damage to college property will be paid for by the participant responsible. Students are expected to take proper care of dorm furnishings.
- 12. Though Sewanee is generally a very safe place, we recommend that participants keep their doors locked and not walk alone at night. We also recommend that participants leave all valuables at home. The University is not responsible for any lost or stolen property.

13. Participants are expected to treat instructors, visitors, counselors and peers with courtesy and respect at all times.

*Sewanee Young Writers' Conference
Code of Responsibility Acknowledgment Form*

We have received a copy of the Code of Responsibility and understand that these rules are in force throughout the Sewanee Young Writers' Conference. We understand that a student's participation in the Conference may be terminated for violations of the Code of Responsibility.

Print Name

Signature of Student

Date

Print Name

Signature of Parent or Guardian

Date

Please return this form to Elizabeth Grammer no later than May 1.